

TechMart Electronics — Refund & Cancellation Policy

Return window

Most items can be returned within 30 days of delivery for a full refund, provided they are in original condition with all accessories and packaging.

Non-returnable items

Opened software, gift cards, and personalized/engraved items are non-returnable unless they arrive damaged or defective.

Refund timelines

- Refunds are issued to the original payment method.
- Once we receive and inspect the return, refunds are processed within 5–7 business days.
- Card refunds may take an additional 2–3 business days to appear on your statement depending on your bank.

TechMart Premium refunds

Premium membership can be cancelled anytime. If you cancel within 14 days of purchase and have not used Premium benefits, you are eligible for a full refund. After 14 days, Premium is refunded on a pro-rated basis for the unused period.

Double charges & billing errors

If you were charged twice or billed in error, contact billing@techmart.example with your order ID. Verified duplicate charges are refunded within 3 business days.

Failed upgrades

If you paid for Premium but the benefits did not activate, this is treated as a billing + technical issue. We will restore access immediately and, if it cannot be restored, issue a full refund.
